Dear Mr. Robinson

It occurs to me that there may be something which you would like to have looked after in connection with your first Sundays services at Syracuse.

The Chancellor tells me you have arranged with him for the ninth of November, and possibly may wish him to take your place on the sixteenth.

I have asked Chancellor Day for a discourse in the interests of Home Missions for the 9th or 16th in connection with our annual Collection, in order to relieve you from the same on the 16th or 23rd

It is quite doubtful if the Chancellor can get the time required to prepare such a sermon - As he says, his work of preparation usually goes over to Sunday Morning.

However, we will arrange the matter in some way.

Prof Vibbard our talented and obliging Chanter has just called to enquire about the hymns for Sunday.

He will have selections ready, if he does not find on Saturday afternoon that you have sent your selections to me - So if you wish, you may send me your selections -

All days are said to be good, but I hope on Sunday next we may have one that will be bright on the outside.

My kindest regards to Mrs Robinson and yourself and little son.

Cordially yours

William E Clark

My Dear Mr Robinson

We are looking forward to the pleasure of seeing you in your new place on the 2nd of November, and we hope you will anticipate the event with pleasure rather than anxiety.

I note that you are expecting to arrange with Chancellor Day to take your place on the 2nd and perhaps 3rd Sunday in November. This if your wish, will be agreable to me, and I think much better than at this time to bring in a Stranger, who might by some of our outside friends be confused with the new Pastor.

By the way if you have not already arranged with the Chancellor, I suggest your taking the matter up with him soon as he is much in demand elsewhere.

(Chancellor James R. Day - Syracuse)

About the meeting of Presbytery, I have arranged with the Moderator Rev. Orson L. Wiltz - Shreveport N.L., for a Special Meeting at Park Church Chapel in this City on the 17th of Nov. Monday at 11 A.M.

I hope you and Mrs. Robinson will enjoy your brief outing after leaving Portland.

Mrs Clark who arrived home on Thursday of last week, bringing my daughter Edith, joins me in kind regards to Mrs Robinson and yourself.

I am Sincerely Yours

My Dear Mr Robinson:

I have the pleasure of officially informing you of the action of Park Central Presbyterian Church, at the Congregational Meeting held on Wednesday evening Oct. 1st, when you were unanimously chosen Pastor of this Church.

A call in due form and signed by the members of Session, and by the members of the Boards of Deacons and Trustees will be presented to the Presbytery of Syracuse by our Commissioners at a Special Meeting to be called at the Chapel of Park Church at such a date in the near future as will be convenient for you to be present, and receive the same from the Moderator.

In our Presbytery a Special Meeting requires an interval of ten days from date of notices sent out by the Moderator, to the date of Meeting.

I can assure you and Mrs Robinson of a warm Welcome to your new Church home. Mrs Clark who does not return for some time from Skaneateles Lake, would if she were at home, join me in sending greeting to Mrs Robinson and yourself.

I am Sincerely yours

The Rev.
W. Courtland Robinson,
Dear Mr. Robinson: —

I have casually learned that you have been invited to the pastorate of the Park Church of Syracuse and I beg, although unknown to you, to extend my heartiest congratulations.

It is more than thirteen years since I too was considering a call to that Church and, the same changes have occurred since I left that pastorate five years ago. I know that the Park Church, with wise leadership, will command the situation in that important city.

The old First Church is about to make a retreat from its conspicuous location and there is nothing to prevent the influence of Park Church from increasing immeasurably, with a strong man in that pulpit. You will have very many students from the University.

You will have a body of most loyal people who have been known as such, even when sorely tried.
You will find a blended body of men waiting to support you and another large body of men who are not in the Church they but who can readily be won by your earnest & direct preaching
It is a democratic Church, with a host of people of comfortable means. When I was there, the Church was very answerable for the number of young married people

it continued. The prayer meeting was the best I ever had known.

You certainly are to be congratulated upon your invitation to be the pastor
of such a noble Church.
Pardon this long letter
but I could not deny myself this privilege.

Believe me,

Very truly yours,

L. Allison Clarke.

I have sent the "Fisher's History of the Christian Church" with the two other books which you kindly loaned me, to Rev. John K. Steel. He has doubtless received them some time ago.

Dear Court: -

I was glad to see your call to Syracuse in the Adjutant, and didn't see very well how you could refuse to go, so was not surprised to get the little circular letter declaring that you intend to do so. It is a wise move of the Syracusans, and the right move for you, I should think. From the start I've felt that after ten or twelve years in the ministry aman ought, having mean time moved two or three times, to get into t e place where he can do his very best work, and there stick twenty years or so, till he retires. I should think you had got there now, just at the right time. I don't think it's a bit too big for you. I heard from Hallenbeck (Albany-Binghamton) of your dealings with Albany 3rd., and chortled in my joy. It is a grand thing for the cause when a minister now and then won't move. It cures one church temporarily of the idea most of them have, that all they have to do is to decide who they want, and he will fall over himself to go.

I think I can understand and appreciate your feelings at leaving Potsdam, but I don't see how aman of your age and in good health could refuse so unanimous and well considered a call from a church offering such opportunities of usefulness and power as that at Syracuse.

Success and happiness to you and yours. My wife sends her best wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Sidney S. Conger

My dear Robinson,

It is a great regret that I was expected by you and Creighton Tuesday evening and did not appear. Most humbly I apologize for some failure to express my thought at Brasher Falls when we spoke of this. I had another engagement for that evening and could not accept your kind invitation and thought to say this. It was Monday evening that I was free to come. Should you decide to change plans that night, which you suggested might be done. This I did not expect as there was a meeting of a literary club I think you had on that evening that would interfere with the attendance. ~~I~~ When my ~~work~~ came of such change I filled Monday evening.

I much regret that the mistake occurred and send my sincere apologies to you and to your people.

It is a sorrow to me that I am not to associate with you longer in Presbytery. This would have been a very great pleasure and privilege. Will you accept my heartiest wish wishes for the best success

— in the new field.

Yours faithfully,

J. Fred
